INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE CENTER

“The Short Story of Graylyn”

In 1925, Nathalie Lyons Gray purchased eighty-seven acres of pasture land and cornfields from R.J. Reynolds, Inc. Nathalie and her husband, Bowman, set out to build the home of their dreams. With nearly 60 rooms and 46,000 square feet, Graylyn had emerged as one of the largest private homes in North Carolina.

Remarkable interior styling and details are a hallmark of Graylyn. Each of the original bedrooms on the second floor had private baths. Amenities were very lavish and truly unique for their time. Gold-plated fixtures, solid marble tubs, heated towel racks, built-in scales and shower with 17 shower heads were what made Graylyn “the showplace of the city.”

The Grays moved into the completed house in 1932. After Mr. Gray’s death in 1935, Mrs. Gray lived in the house until 1937, and each son lived on the estate for the first years of marriage. In 1938, Mrs. Gray married Benjamin Bernard, and she lived in the guest cottage, now called Bernard Cottage, until her death in 1961. In 1946, Mrs. Gray and her sons donated the estate to Wake Forest University. Through the years, the estate has been through many journeys and had many uses including university programs and community service.

Today, this glorious and historic estate is the perfect combination of a modern, sophisticated conference facility and an enchanting historic residence. Graylyn is sure to captivate from the moment you arrive at the estate gates.

Graylyn is still owned and managed by Wake Forest University with all profits being used to support and fund student scholarships.
